IIA Central Virginia Chapter Theron Bell Memorial VCU Scholarships

The following three VCU students each received a portion of the IIA Central Virginia Chapter’s Theron Bell Memorial Scholarships in September 2016 which totaled $5,000.

Anthony Williams
VCU senior seeking a dual degree in accounting and human resource management. Serving 2016-17 as President of the VCU Chapter of Beta Alpha Psi, International Accounting Honor Society. He served as Vice-President last year. He is working as a research assistant for Dr. Lindsay Andiola, who specializes in teaching auditing. Worked Summer 2015 as Audit Intern with Elliot Davis Decosimo. Goal: Earn CPA and join public accounting firm.
Amber Payne Castro
Is in her second year of her accounting degree. Has an “A” grade point average in her accounting courses. Hobbies: loves to read and play piano.
Goal: Earn CPA and become a forensic accountant.
Vanessa Manzanarez

VCU senior seeking a degree in accounting. Her current grade point average is 3.5. Worked this summer as a tax and audit intern at Dixon Hughes Goodman and has received a fulltime offer beginning October 2017. Goal: Earn CPA and join an accounting firm. She also hopes to gain a lot of knowledge in how a business runs through her auditing experience to start her own haute couture fashion line business in the future.