2013 IIA CANADA RECOGNITION AWARDS

Call for Nominations

ARTHUR CHILD DISTINGUISHED SERVICE IN CANADA AWARD
For contributions to the profession of internal auditing through participation in the activities of the IIA in Canada.

CONTRIBUTION TO THE PROFESSION OF INTERNAL AUDITING AWARD
For overall contribution to the profession in Canada, and where applicable, globally, through research, publications, education or other developments in the field of internal auditing.

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD
Through a lifetime of accomplishments and dedication to the profession of internal auditing that directly impacted the profession and the organization of the IIA in Canada.

While the awards primarily recognize contribution to the IIA in Canada, contribution at the North American and Global level, where applicable, will also be considered.

The Institute of Internal Auditors Canada is requesting nominations for its three most prestigious awards. All three awards recognize individuals who have contributed outstanding achievements in the field of internal auditing in Canada. The Arthur Child Distinguished Service in Canada award honours IIA Canada members for their service to the organization in Canada. The Contribution to the Profession of Internal Auditing award is given to individuals who have contributed significantly to the advancement of the profession in Canada. The Lifetime Achievement award honours IIA Canada members who have shown extraordinary leadership and dedication over a lifetime of service to the profession in Canada.

Each recipient of these awards and his/her guest will receive complimentary registration and travel expenses for the IIA’s 2013 Canadian Conference, which will be held in Winnipeg, Manitoba, September 29-October 2, 2013. The award recipients will be recognized and presented with their award during the gala event at the conference.

You are encouraged to consider carefully the criteria for each award and to recommend worthy candidates for the honours. Nominations should be as complete as possible and must be submitted on the official Award Nomination Form. Multiple nominations for the same candidate from different members are allowed, but each must be submitted separately. Nominations are reviewed and judged by IIA Canada’s Nominating Committee.

Please note that the deadline for nominations is 5:00 PM Eastern June 28, 2013.
ARTHUR CHILD DISTINGUISHED SERVICE IN CANADA AWARD

IIA Canada established this award in 2009 to recognize individuals who have given outstanding and exceptional service to the profession of internal auditing through participation in the activities of The Institute of Internal Auditors in Canada. This award is presented annually.

Only Canadian IIA members are eligible to receive the award. Members of the Nominating Committee and employees of IIA Canada shall not be eligible to receive the award. Members of the Canadian Board nominated for the award must retire from any discussions and votes on the subject.

Nominations will primarily be judged based on the members’ service to IIA and its Chapters in Canada but will also consider involvement at the North American and Global levels, particularly in one or more of the areas followed:

- Recognized contribution as a volunteer within the governance structure of the Institute in Canada
- Representing Canada within the IIA’s North American and/or Global organizations
- Influence on membership's growth or certification
- Contribution to educational offerings for the profession
- Advocating for the internal audit profession in Canada
- Contribution to the growth of Canadian chapters

With the intent to recognize truly distinguished service by IIA Canadian members, no more than two awards can be granted in a single year.

The deadline for receipt of nominations is June 28, 2013.
CONTRIBUTION TO THE PROFESSION OF INTERNAL AUDITING AWARD

IIA Canada established this award in 2009 to recognize Canadians, whether members or not members of The IIA, who have had a significant impact on the internal auditing profession in Canada and globally, where applicable.

Nominations for the award are considered annually on the basis of nominees' achievements and their contribution to research, education, publications, innovations, or other developments and activities advancing the field of internal auditing.

This award will only be presented each year upon receipt of suitable nominations and the number of awards to be made in a single year is at the discretion of the Nominating Committee.

Members of the Nominating Committee and employees of IIA Canada shall not be eligible to receive the award. Members of the Canadian Board nominated for the award must retire from any discussions and votes on the subject.

The deadline for receipt of nominations is June 28, 2013.
LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

IIA Canada established the Lifetime Achievement award in 2009 to recognize individual members who, through a lifetime of accomplishments and dedication to the profession and to the Institute, have impacted the Canadian practice of internal auditing, advanced the awareness of the profession and the IIA in Canada, and inspired professionals in Canada and around the world to make a difference in our profession and in the organizations we serve.

The award is open to members of the IIA in Canada who have shown extraordinary leadership and dedication through many years of service to the global profession and to the IIA in Canada. Members must be well known and well respected in Canada and where applicable, globally, and must have had a major impact on the development or the furthering of the profession in Canada. While not required, members may have already received other prestigious awards from IIA Canada, such as the Contribution to the Profession of Internal Auditing award or the Arthur Child Distinguished Service in Canada award.

This award will only be presented each year upon receipt of suitable nominations and the number of awards to be made in a single year is at the discretion of the Nominating Committee.

The deadline for receipt of nominations is June 28, 2013.
