Happy Holidays!

This month, November, we are excited to be hosting a two-and-a-half-day seminar presented by Nejolla Korris, CEO of InterVeritas Intl. Ltd. Ms. Korris is an expert in linguistic lie detection, social media, fraud and social engineering. She has trained members of Scotland Yard, Irish Garda, Singapore police and the FBI. The first day will be a practical class using your own laptop to Conduct Online Investigations Using Open Source Intelligence. The second day (with a follow-up half day workshop on the third day) covers fraud detection in the workshop Words Never Lie but People do – Detecting deception in everyday communications. The seminar dates are November 28 – 30th.

We hope that you will join us on the 29th at the Albuquerque Balloon Museum for a holiday get together. There is much to celebrate this year. Your local chapter received Ruby designation from the Institute of Internal Auditors. This means that for over 11 years, the Chapter has consistently provided quality service to our members. Thanks so much for all your support, the attendance at local programs and enhancement of the industry!

Update from Programs

Last month, October, was National Cyber Security Awareness Month (NCSAM) sponsored by the National Cyber Security Division within the Department of Homeland Security and the National Cyber Security Alliance. Established in 2004, Cyber Security Awareness month encourages vigilance and protection by all computer users. The department and NCSAM reach out to the community to offer tips and best practices regarding staying safe while on line.

Our Chapter provided continuing education for members and other professionals on October 19, 2018. We were privileged to have Lynn Fountain, CGMA, CRMA, CPA cover important areas of Cyber Security including the most proliferate cyber security threats and internal audit’s role in cyber risk management. Ms. Fountain also brought with her signed copies of three of her books which were given away to attendees through random drawings.
