CHAPTER HIGHLIGHTS

The Chapter’s highlights for September 2020 include the following:

- IIA Bermuda Chapter and Deloitte hosted the ‘BMA Cyber Risk Management Code of Conduct & IIA Annual General Meeting’ in February and ‘Responding to COVID-19 Insights for Internal Audit’ in April and May 2020.
- IIA and ACCA Bermuda Chapters collaborated for ‘Summer Paint in the Park’ at Botanical Gardens in July. This was a great social event to connect with members and friends.
- The Bermuda Chapter received the 2020 IIA Chapter of Excellence award. This program recognizes chapters for their belief in quality education and support of the CIA designation, specifically through The IIA’s CIA Learning System program.

Lessons learned from the COVID-19 Pandemic

While internal audit leadership plans for the next normal, there are seven lessons it should consider when modeling its work.

1. Impact Assessment
2. Business Continuity
3. Supply Chain Resilience
4. Liquidity and Cash Flow
5. Human Resource Policies
6. Technology
7. Communication Strategy

No one knows how long the crisis will last, but its impact may continue to shape the world’s economy for months, or even years, to come. In looking at the quality of the organization’s response to the pandemic, internal audit has an opportunity to reposition itself as a greater value provider, leveraging experiences gained through the crisis to help pave the path to the next normal.
