Internal Audit Practitioner:
A new first stop on your road to success.

The IIA's Internal Audit Practitioner designation is a great way to quickly demonstrate your internal audit aptitude. You can earn this new designation through social badging by completing the Internal Audit Practitioner application and taking and passing the Certified Internal Auditor (CIA®) Part One exam.

Candidates who have successfully completed the CIA® Part One exam within the past 24 months are also eligible to apply.

For more information, please visit the Internal Audit Practitioner web page at theiia.org.

LEARN
how to be a better auditor.

LEVERAGE
your audit competencey and knowledge.

LEAD
to achieve better business results.
Gain a Powerful Advantage

Advance your career when you earn the prestigious Certified Internal Auditor® credential. Did you know that internal audit professionals holding the CIA® credential earn an average of $38,000 more annually than those without a certification? (Source: The IIA's 2017 Compensation Study)

It’s amazing what those three little letters can do for your future! As the only globally recognized certification for internal auditors, the Certified Internal Auditor® (CIA®) designation shows you are an internal audit leader, and with it you will:

• Demonstrate your expertise.
• Understand and apply the International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing.
• Carry out professional responsibilities for any audit, anywhere.
• Gain credibility with your peers and clients.

Candidates for the CIA® credential must meet the eligibility requirements established by the Institute of Internal Auditors. Visit www.theiia.org/cia for complete details about the CIA designation, candidate eligibility requirements, or to register for the exam.
