UTC Student Night
Date/Time: February 22, 2018 (4:30 PM—5:30 PM)
Location: UTC Campus (Fletcher 100)

We are hosting a student night at the University of Tennessee, Chattanooga. We would love for you to drop by and help the Chapter to encourage students to consider a career in auditing. If you are willing to serve on the panel, please contact Kim Clingan at kim.clingan@chattanoogastate.edu or 423-697-4749.

Broaden Your IT Audit Knowledge
Speaker: John Gatto
Date/Time: March 13, 2018 (8:00 AM—5:00 PM)
Location: The Chattanoogan
CPE: 8 hours
Price: $225 for Members, $250 for Non-Members

This seminar will include a review of many topics including (1) crisis and change management, (2) outsourcing and the need for supplier audits, (3) Enterprise Risk Management (ERM), and (4) bring your own device (BOYD). For more information on these topics, click here.

John Gatto was with Health Care Service Corporation (HCSC) in Chicago, IL from December, 2005 until his retirement in January, 2015. He was the Divisional Vice President, Audit Services and was responsible for all aspects of IT Audit for the five Blue Cross Blue Shield Plans. John was a member of a number of Steering Committees within the IT area of HCSC. Prior to HCSC, John worked at Federal-Mogul in Michigan as the Sox coordination supervisor, Avery Dennison in California as a Project Manager, and spent 13 years with Horizon BlueCross BlueShield of New Jersey, where he was Director of Systems Audit, Customer Audit and Operations Audit. John has over 45 years of audit experience, most of it in the IT Audit arena. He is a CISA and CRISC and has his MBA from Fairleigh-Dickinson University in New Jersey. John is a frequent speaker for the BCBSA, IIA and ISACA organizations.

This seminar includes a continental breakfast and buffet lunch at the Broad Street Grille. Morning and afternoon breaks and continuous refreshments will also be served on a permanent refreshment island. Parking is also included.

To register, click here (by noon on March 8, 2018). We appreciate your patience as we are implementing a new method of registration. If you experience any issues with registration.
