The Cincinnati Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors (“IIA”) is offering the following scholarship and IIA student membership opportunities to college students in the Cincinnati metropolitan area who are considering the internal audit profession as a potential career choice.

E. Roman Jones Memorial Scholarship Program

Description: A non-renewable $1,000 scholarship in the memory of E. Roman Jones, a former officer in the Cincinnati Chapter of the IIA, for a college student considering the internal audit a potential career choice. Refer to the E. Roman Jones Memorial Scholarship Program Application Form for additional details regarding eligibility requirements and the application and selection process.

Number of Awards: 1

Cincinnati Chapter of the IIA Board of Governors Intern Scholarships Program

Description: A non-renewable $1,500 scholarship to assist the Cincinnati Chapter of the IIA’s Board of Governors in conducting various chapter activities, including student-related events. Refer to the Cincinnati Chapter of the IIA Board of Governors Intern Scholarship Program Application Form for additional details regarding eligibility requirements and the application and selection process.

Number of Awards: 2

Student IIA Memberships

Student memberships to the IIA will be awarded to students who submit applications for either the E. Roman Jones Memorial Scholarship Program or the Cincinnati Chapter of the IIA Board of Governors Intern Scholarship Program, but who are not awarded the scholarships. These student memberships afford students all the benefits of IIA membership, including access to a local chapter with networking events and resources.

Number of Awards: Up to 15

Please contact Mike Flynn (Academic Relations Committee) with any questions at (513) 378-4146 or mike.flynn@usbank.com.

About The IIA

Established in 1941, the IIA is an international professional association with global headquarters in Lake Mary, Florida, USA. The IIA is the internal audit profession’s global voice, recognized authority, acknowledged leader, chief advocate, and principal educator. Generally, members work in internal auditing, risk management, governance, internal control, information technology audit, education, and security. Globally, The IIA has more than 185,000 members, including 160 chapters serving more than 70,000 members in North America.

Mission

The mission of the IIA is to provide dynamic leadership for the global profession of internal auditing. Activities in support of this mission will include, but will not be limited to:

- Advocating and promoting the value internal audit professionals add to their organizations.
- Providing comprehensive professional educational and development opportunities, standards and other professional practice guidance, and certification programs.
- Researching, disseminating, and promoting knowledge concerning internal auditing and its appropriate role in control, risk management, and governance to practitioners and stakeholders.
- Educating practitioners and other relevant audiences on best practices in internal auditing.
- Bringing together internal auditors from all countries to share information and experiences.