President’s Message

“A man is but the product of his thoughts what he thinks, he becomes.”
– Mahatma Gandhi

Positivity opens up a world of options that we don’t even notice when in a negative frame of mind. Positivity has so many, well positive, effects on our day-to-day life and leadership ability. So how do we step over to the glass half full side of life if we have become a bit negative? Like any change in life it takes some practice and consistent execution to form our new habit. One essential element is practicing an attitude of gratitude, identifying daily the things from the day that we are grateful to have experienced. We don’t live in a vacuum, so find someone to share your grateful thoughts. Positivity is contagious and makes the world a better place.

I am grateful for all the wonderful volunteers that have given of their time and talents this year to our Heartland-Iowa chapter. If you would like to get involved this coming chapter year that begins June 1st, reach out to any leader. We have two CPE opportunities remaining this chapter year. Please take advantage of these opportunities as you are able.

Thanks
Yvonne Kenworthy
President, Heartland-Iowa IIA

About Session 2: 1 CPE
All members and guests are welcome to attend this session, whether or not you are a CAE. Ginny will remind attendees that leadership is a choice and provide inspiration as well as tools for enhancing their own leadership journey. Leadership isn’t a matter of whether we were born with some magic leadership gene. We all possess some of the necessary leadership skills to be leaders in one or more areas of our lives. It is a question of our own willingness to step into a leadership role when you feel called to do so. Ginny uses personal stories woven together with research and inspirational quotes to discuss elements of effective leadership.

CAE Conference: 1 CPE
Chief Audit Executives are invited to stay for a third hour at no additional charge to share best practices and discuss the challenges they have in their audit organization. You are a CAE if you are the highest-ranking auditor in your organization even if you are the only auditor in your organization or if your management has delegated attendance to you.

About Our Speakers:
Jonathan Dreasler, Manager, Risk Advisory Services, RSM US LLP

Jonathan has six years of hands-on experience in the risk management field and holds a specialized computer sciences degree that focuses on computer investigations. Jonathan’s client work spans several

CPE 1

Register at www.eiseverywhere.com/416681
About the Program: 1 CPE
All members and guests are welcome to attend this program, whether or not you are a CAE. As auditors we often have to hold difficult conversations with upper management and process owners in order to improve controls. Having those conversations can be difficult. This session will focus on giving you the tools that you need to make Real Conversations easier. You will also have an opportunity to design and practice a real conversation you are currently facing. Think about how you feel when you are in a conversation with someone you KNOW is really present and listening to you. Don't we all want to have people like that in our lives? What is your capacity to be a good listener – to be present in the conversation and nowhere else? We will focus on the importance of good listening, what holds us back from really listening and skills for becoming a better listener.

CAE Conference: 1 CPE
Chief Audit Executives are invited to stay for a second hour to share best practices and discuss any challenges they have in their audit organization. You are a CAE if you are the highest-ranking auditor in your organization even if you are the only auditor in your organization, or your management delegated attendance to you.

Speaker:

Ginny Wilson-Peters, Owner & President of Integrity Integrated
