About the Speaker: Dr. Perry Moore is Professor of Accounting and Director of Graduate Business at Lipscomb University in Nashville. He is a Certified Public Accountant, a Certified Internal Auditor, a Chartered Global Management Accountant, and is Certified in Risk Management Assurance. A Nashville native, Perry graduated from Lipscomb with a degree in accounting and then completed his graduate studies at the University of Alabama and the University of Georgia.

For the Tennessee Society of CPA’s, Perry is a member of their Professional Ethics and Accounting Career Education Committees. Perry has also directed their “Accounting Academy”, a program designed to attract high school students to accounting careers. Perry serves as a member of Council representing the Nashville Chapter and as an At-Large Member of the Nashville Chapter’s Board.

Perry is active in the Institute of Internal Auditors. He has served as a past-President of their Nashville Chapter. Perry is Past-President of Delta Mu Delta, an international honor society for business majors.

Perry provides training for CPAs across the state of Tennessee on Professional Ethics. He serves as a member of the CPE Standards Working Group for the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA). In 2015, the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs honored Perry with their International Teaching Excellence Award. He has also received teaching awards from the Tennessee Society of CPAs, Lipscomb University, and the University of Georgia.
IIA Memphis Chapter members we would like to proudly introduce the Board of Governors! Each month we will spotlight one of the IIA Memphis Chapter board members in our newsletter. We believe this will allow chapter members to become more aware of the chapter structure.

This month we are honored to feature our board member Glenn Russell, CPA CGMA.

Glenn Russell joined the IIA Memphis Chapter in 2004 shortly after leaving the public accounting world and entering the private industry. He joined the Board of the IIA Memphis Chapter in Fall 2015. Glenn is currently employed at MAA. MAA is one of the largest publicly traded multifamily REITs in the country. MAA owns and manages over 80,000 apartment homes across 250 communities in 15 states.

Glenn is the SVP, Director of Internal Audit at MAA. In this role he is responsible for MAA’s Internal Audit function which provides objective assurance of company policy compliance, evaluates internal controls, reviews operations for enhanced efficiencies, investigates fraud, and facilitates risk assessment. The group also ensures annual compliance with MAA’s SOX 404 requirements.

Also, he serves on a committee of Open Arms, which is a charitable organization of MAA. Open Arms provides a home away from home for individuals and/or families who must travel to receive medical treatment.

Glenn joined MAA in 2013. Prior to joining MAA, he led the internal audit functions of Buckeye Technologies and ACH Foods. He began his career with Ernst & Young working with a variety of public and private clients.

Glenn is a licensed Certified Public Accountant in the state of Tennessee and graduated from the University of Memphis with a BBA degree in Accounting.

He is also a member of the AICPA and TSCPA.

He is an active member in his church serving administrative leadership and youth leadership roles. In his free time, he enjoys spending time with his family playing tennis, kayaking, and on the family farm.

Become a Certification Study Buddy

Research shows that when people study together it helps with their learning process, therefore join the Certification Study Buddy group to be paired up with two or more individuals that can be your study buddy and accountability partner.

Some of the things Certification Study Buddies would do are:

- Text or call each other at least once every two weeks to check see if their buddy is studying
- Schedule at least one study session with their study buddy a month
- Share study tips and materials to help each other pass certification exams
- Be willing to offer encouragement to their buddy throughout the certification study & testing process

You can sign up by simply sending name and your email address to the IIAMemphis@gmail.com.

Congratulations to the following on their certifications:

Shonda Summers, Certified Government Auditing Professional (CGAP)

William Robert Stage, Certified Internal Auditor (CIA)

Monica Evans, Certified Internal Auditor (CIA)
A technical expert with industry knowledge and an arsenal of strong auditing tools and techniques.

A strategic thinker who can analyze problems quickly, manage change effectively, and drive projects successfully.

A trusted supervisor who can train, motivate, and inspire a team to perform at the highest levels.

A dynamic leader who can communicate ideas clearly, influence organizational policy, and drive change.

Congratulations to the following for completing the CIA Challenge by obtaining their CIA before May 31, 2016

CPE Information

Certified individuals have until Dec. 31 to report continuing professional education credits to keep their accreditation(s) in good standing with The IIA. Many on-location seminars and eLearning options remain to fulfill this year’s requirement, as well as several conferences.

Things to know:
As a benefit of membership, CPE reporting fees are waived for North American members. If you have met your annual requirement already, log on to CCMS to complete the CPE Reporting Form before the end-of-year rush.

Keep it local – check your local chapter’s listing for CPE opportunities.
