Spring Seminar & April Luncheon
April 8-9, 2020

Day 1: Total Quality Auditing (8 hours CPE)

Day 2: Our Choices on the Road of Life (8 hours CPE)

Day 2 Lunch: Audit Leadership (1 hour CPE) with Amanda "Jo" Erven

Whether in our professional or personal lives, we have all experienced moments of feeling defeated or just plain worn to a frazzle trying to hold on. There are several ways we can get back up and stay there. This course will show you how to be an anchor for yourself, for those you lead, and for your organization.

See website for more details!

President’s Message
Greetings IIA OKC Members,

I want to thank all of those who attended the February lunch meeting on the topic of Interview Skills. Tim Reddick provided an engaging presentation to help attendees identify truthful and deceptive behaviors. The Slate of Officers and Governors for the 2020-2021 chapter year was also presented at the February meeting. The Chapter will vote on the Slate in the March meeting, so be sure to register soon!

I hope to see you all at our upcoming events!

Additional Items:

• If you are looking for a great way to network with your peers and improve your knowledge of the audit profession, consider an IIA Conference. There are a variety of conferences offered throughout the year focusing on various topics, such as:
  o General Audit Management (March 16-18, Las Vegas, NV)
  o IIA International Conference (July 20-22, Miami, FL)
  o Governance, Risk and Control Conference (August 17-19, Austin, TX)
Visit the "Learning & Events" tab on the IIA Website (theiia.org) for additional details and other exciting learning opportunities.

• The IIA Oklahoma City Chapter is a not-for-profit organization. Registration fees for lunch meetings and seminars are to cover the expenses incurred by the Chapter to put on these events. If you are unable to cancel your registration by the stated cancellation date, the Chapter is obligated to pay the venue for your seat/meal. As a result, you may either send another member to the event in your place or pay for your registration to the event. We work in an industry that is based on integrity, therefore, it is critical we take care of our outstanding obligations in a timely manner. To help ensure the Chapter continues to have the resources needed to provide the education and networking opportunities we are accustom to, we ask Chapter members with outstanding invoices to please work with Taylor Foster (Treasurer) to handle these at this time.

• Cherokee Nation Businesses is currently looking for help completing their QAR. If you are interested in helping with the QAR (and receiving CPE credits), please contact Sammi at iiaokcpresident@gmail.com to obtain the contact information.

Sammi de la Vega,
IIA OKC Chapter President
