Welcome to May, everyone—Internal Auditor’s favorite month of the year :) This past weekend brought us Cinco de Mayo, the 145th running of the Kentucky Derby (controversy and all), and Star Wars day… all good things! But at least until Memorial Day, we shift our focus to the ever popular Internal Audit Month. This serves as a time to put our profession front and center. While marketing ourselves is often a part of our daily jobs, this month brings a heightened opportunity to show the value of Internal Audit in a different way. I encourage all of you to plan your Internal Audit Awareness Month events now, to organize, to share best practices, to stimulate dialogue. All will serve to educate organizations on the importance of Internal Audit. From building lunch and learn meetings with your stakeholders to writing an article for your company newsletter/newsblog. And don’t forget to share both with the rest of the Portland Chapter and will do so in the next newsletter. (Read your status at the IIA Portland chapter newsletter at chapter49@iiachapters.org.) Lastly, to help kick things off in the celebrating spirit, I’ll like to share your stories to the IIA Portland newsletter/website. And please share back with me the ideas you put into action; I want to share your successes with the rest of the Portland Chapter and will do so in the next newsletter. (Read your status at the IIA Portland chapter newsletter at chapter49@iiachapters.org.)

Internal Auditor Magazine

Volume 6, Issue 8

May is Internal Audit Awareness Month. The perfect time to promote Internal Audit.

During May, continue your internal email and social media outreach with the Internal Audit Awareness Month theme (tagged left to right) and a handy quote:

>> "May is Internal Audit Awareness Month. Please ask me about it!"

>> “This month is Internal Audit Awareness Month. What can I do for YOU?”

>> "May is Internal Audit Awareness Month. Please stop by my office for a visit."

NOTE: Attendees will be provided a 6-month license to Tableau (over $400 value) at the event!

---

Excluding Case Studies

Getting Started with a Data Foundation

Speakers: Matthew McClintock, CPE, CBIA, Now Managing Director
Angela Goudsion-Smith, Mass Auditing Managing Director
Leila Annen, Tableau Global Account Executive
Tim Willison, Tableau Global Account Executive

Dates: 11 AM (check-in)
8 AM - 12 PM: Speakers
12:00 PM - 2 PM: Lunch
5 PM - 7:30 PM: Tableau demo

Join subject matter experts from Tableau Software and Moss Adams LLP for a hands on 1/2 day session to introduce the following to you:

• What can internal auditors do for the internal audit professional from planning to the presentation?
• Using Tableau – Hands-on walkthrough of the software. Please bring your laptop!
• Case Studies – Focus on case of interest
• Hands-on session – Hands-on using robust and modern analytics platform in your internal Audit Foundation

NOTE: Attendees will be provided with a 6-month license to Tableau (over $400 value) at the event! Attendees will receive a CPE credit and morning coffee and snacks will be provided. Please register here.

---

Topical Seminar – TACTICS (and courage) to appraise corporate culture

May is Internal Audit Awareness Month. The perfect time to promote Internal Audit.

This seminar is a time to put our profession front and center. While marketing ourselves is often a part of our daily jobs, this month brings a heightened opportunity to show the value of Internal Audit in a different way. I encourage all of you to plan your Internal Audit Awareness Month events now, to organize, to share best practices, to stimulate dialogue. All will serve to educate organizations on the importance of Internal Audit.

In response to heightened expectations from stakeholders, the need for internal audit to contribute to understanding and decision-making, and the demand for increased visibility and credibility, internal audit organizations face new challenges and expectations. Today’s internal auditor has a unique opportunity to help drive business strategy and be a leader in organizational decision making. This seminar will provide attendees with a foundational understanding of the key elements of E&O and other risk management and audit professionals in the Portland area. Attendees will be provided with a 6-month license to Tableau (over $400 value) at the event! Attendees will receive a CPE credit and morning coffee and snacks will be provided. Please register here.

---

Annual Conference

Portland, OR

This month is Internal Audit Awareness Month. The perfect time to promote Internal Audit.

The philosophy behind Europe’s data privacy law is expected to reach the USA by late 2018. This seminar offers a wide perspective is well positioned to ascertain whether risks arising from culture have been identified and addressed, and whether “hotspots” exist within the organization.

This seminar provides insights to help leaders anticipate cultural risks has never been higher. High profile breakdowns in numerous industry sectors have arisen from culture have been identified and addressed, and whether “hotspots” exist within the organization. Anticipate cultural risks has never been higher. High profile breakdowns in numerous industry sectors have arisen from culture have been identified and addressed, and whether “hotspots” exist within the organization.

In response to heightened expectations from stakeholders, the need for internal audit to contribute to understanding and decision-making, and the demand for increased visibility and credibility, internal audit organizations face new challenges and expectations. Today’s internal auditor has a unique opportunity to help drive business strategy and be a leader in organizational decision making. This seminar will provide attendees with a foundational understanding of the key elements of E&O and other risk management.

In response to heightened expectations from stakeholders, the need for internal audit to contribute to understanding and decision-making, and the demand for increased visibility and credibility, internal audit organizations face new challenges and expectations. Today’s internal auditor has a unique opportunity to help drive business strategy and be a leader in organizational decision making. This seminar will provide attendees with a foundational understanding of the key elements of E&O and other risk management.

In response to heightened expectations from stakeholders, the need for internal audit to contribute to understanding and decision-making, and the demand for increased visibility and credibility, internal audit organizations face new challenges and expectations. Today’s internal auditor has a unique opportunity to help drive business strategy and be a leader in organizational decision making. This seminar will provide attendees with a foundational understanding of the key elements of E&O and other risk management.

In response to heightened expectations from stakeholders, the need for internal audit to contribute to understanding and decision-making, and the demand for increased visibility and credibility, internal audit organizations face new challenges and expectations. Today’s internal auditor has a unique opportunity to help drive business strategy and be a leader in organizational decision making. This seminar will provide attendees with a foundational understanding of the key elements of E&O and other risk management.