President’s Message

Happy Thanksgiving, everyone! We are just one week away from turkey, stuffing, and wine sparkling cider. :) Along with too much food and drink, Thanksgiving means time spent away from work and with family and friends. During this time, it is important we reflect on the days/months/years passed and express our gratitude for those people, places, and things that fill our lives with joy. From a professional standpoint, I am thankful to serve the IIA with a group of volunteers who are selfless, committed, and supportive, and I am thankful for our members who are engaged and present at our events. As an example, our recent “Lightening Talks” event showcased both of these in spades — selfless and committed volunteers organized the event, and engaged chapter members showed up to participate in this unique learning and networking opportunity. Thank you to all who were involved. So remember, it isn’t all about the cranberry sauce (my favorite!) or pumpkin pie, it is about who made them, who served them, who are engaged and present at the event, and the stories you share while doing so.

-Andy Willis, President, IIA Portland Chapter
