WHO WE ARE

Established in 1941, The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) is an international professional association serving over 170,000 members in more than 165 countries. With headquarters in Altamonte Springs (Orlando), Florida, USA, The IIA is the internal audit profession’s global voice, recognized authority, acknowledged leader, chief advocate, and principal educator. It is an exciting time to be an internal auditor, and it is amazing to think how the profession has advanced since a dedicated group of internal auditors founded The Institute, nearly 70 years ago. They recognized a need for an organization that represented their profession, provided continuing education opportunities, and set and maintained the International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing (Standards).

Today The IIA is a vibrant global organization continually rising to the challenges faced by internal auditors around the world. That’s why Membership Means More at The IIA.
THE IIA’S MISSION: WHY IT MEANS MORE TO YOU

The mission of The IIA is to provide dynamic leadership for the global profession of internal auditing. As an internal auditor and an IIA member that means:

- You can take advantage of a wealth of professional growth opportunities, International Standards and practice guidance for professional direction and certification programs that allow you to demonstrate your professional competency.
- You have access to the most recent research studies in regard to internal auditing and its appropriate role in control, risk management, and governance.
- You have a committed advocate actively promoting the value you add to your organization.
- You have a global community of professionals to which you can turn to share knowledge and experiences.

THE BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

ACADEMIC RELATIONS

Internal auditing is fundamental to the governance process of any well-run organization, so internal audit education should be part of every business and public administration curriculum. Education is the foundation of any profession, and The IIA is committed to increasing and enhancing internal audit education in colleges and universities worldwide. Among the many ways The IIA can support internal audit education, is the development of a robust academic program called the Internal Auditing Education Partnership (IAEP) program. Visit www.theiia.org/academic to find out more about academic relations efforts and the IAEP program.
PROFESSIONAL GUIDANCE, INTERNATIONAL STANDARDS, AND ADVOCACY

The IIA is the standard- and guidance-setting body for the internal audit profession globally. The IIA’s Code of Ethics, International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing, position papers, practice advisories, and practice guides, all of which are free for IIA members; provide a guidance framework aimed at supporting consistent, high-quality internal audit practices which strengthens the standing of the internal audit profession, and enhances the economic value of internal auditing. The IIA works tirelessly on advocacy efforts to build relationships with organizations and stakeholders who can impact, elevate, and advance the profession globally. Visit www.theiia.org/guidance for details.

DISCOVER THE REWARDS OF GETTING INVOLVED

As an IIA member, you can benefit greatly from activities, programs, and networking opportunities through local IIA chapters and institutes worldwide. Attend local meetings and training programs, network with peers, develop professional contacts, and stay current on internal audit issues and best practices. Visit www.theiia.org/chapters-institutes to find the chapter or institute nearest to you.

THE STANDARD OF QUALITY

The IIA has the resources and tools to help your organization establish and maintain a quality assurance and improvement program, including conformance with the Standards. To learn more about the online resources or to request a no-obligation proposal for an IIA-conducted external quality assessment, visit www.theiia.org/quality.

RESEARCH AND EDUCATION: THE IIA RESEARCH FOUNDATION

The IIA Research Foundation (IIARF) is the global leader in providing research, development, and dissemination of knowledge to advance the internal audit profession. The knowledge learned helps us understand the internal audit profession, shape our practice, and advance the profession to ensure that we can adapt and continue to add value to our organizations. The IIARF expands knowledge and understanding of internal auditing by providing relevant research and educational products. Visit www.theiia.org/research for details.

The IIARF is a not-for-profit corporation operating independently of The IIA, exclusively for research and educational purposes. The Foundation is funded by voluntary contributions from IIA members, Chapters and Institutes, and supportive organizations.

THE IIA RESEARCH FOUNDATION BOOKSTORE

The IIA Research Foundation Bookstore is your one-stop shop for internal audit resources, books, and educational products. The IIARF Bookstore offers hundreds of titles that provide current information and guidance at exclusive members-only pricing. Visit www.theiia.org/bookstore for details.
MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES — SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE
INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIPS

REGULAR MEMBER

An application fee of US $25 and appropriate dues for each year of admittance must accompany the member application where applicable. If you live in Canada, the Caribbean, or the United States, you may join as a member of The IIA directly. The membership conditions, categories, and fee structures are the same for all chapters in the Caribbean and the United States. If you live outside Canada, the Caribbean, or the United States, you may become a member of The IIA by joining an IIA Institute. Institutes charge their own membership fees and offer local programs and services. Membership conditions may vary by Institute. Please contact your nearest Institute directly to obtain specific information regarding membership fee structures. Visit www.theiia.org/chapters to find the Institute nearest to you.

The international member classification is available to prospective members if The IIA currently does not have a Chapter or Institute in your area. Dues are US $195 annually, plus a US $25 application fee. For drafts drawn on banks outside the United States and Canada, please add US $30 to your payment to cover bank collection charges.

You can transfer your membership to another Chapter by contacting The IIA’s Customer Service Center at custserv@theiia.org or +1-407-937-1111.
