Internal Auditors: More than Cybersecurity Police

From Richard Chambers

New guidance announced by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission last week is raising the bar on how publicly traded companies report on their handling of one of the top challenges facing every organization — cybersecurity.

The new cyber-risk guidance, an evolution of guidance first released by the regulator in 2011, boosts reporting requirements in various ways, from disclosures about board involvement in cyber-risk oversight to enhancing internal reporting procedures that more effectively determine when cyber issues rise to the level of materiality and, therefore, should be reported publicly. The new guidelines inevitably will create new compliance challenges and, with that, additional need for internal audit to provide assurance on those compliance efforts.

Chapter Volunteer Opportunities

As always, the Rochester IIA Chapter needs volunteers to help with Programs, Events and other Chapter Activities. If you are interested in getting involved, please contact the Rochester IIA at the email listed above.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR ROCHESTER CHAPTER FOR BECOMING A 2017 CHAPTER OF EXCELLENCE!

The IIA Chapter of Excellence program was introduced in early 2010 to recognize chapters for their belief in quality education and support of the CIA designation, specifically through The IIA’s CIA Learning System program. This program not only helps provide CIA training to chapter members across the nation, but proceeds also support other IIA research and training initiatives around the globe.
CIA Learning System

The IIA’s CIA Learning System is a comprehensive training course designed to provide chapters, members, and the audit community of professionals with information and tools to master the global CIA exam syllabus. This premier quality program is aligned with the International Professional Practices Framework (IPPF) to ensure you stay current with the global internal auditing profession and are ready for the CIA exam. It combines printed text with online testing tools and online questions.
