Celebrating 50 Years of Professional Excellence!

Established in 1941, The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) is an international professional association with more than 175,000 members globally. Members are located in the United States, Canada, the Caribbean (Aruba, Bahamas, Barbados, Cayman Islands, Curacao, Jamaica, Puerto Rico, and Turks & Caicos), Bermuda, Guyana, and Trinidad & Tobago among others. The IIA is the internal audit profession's global voice, recognized authority, acknowledged leader, chief advocate, and principal educator.

The San Jose Chapter of the IIA has been recognized as an outstanding chapter since formation in 1963. The chapter continues to demonstrate an outstanding commitment of Service to Members, Service to the Internal Audit Profession, and Chapter Administration. The San Jose Chapter is recognized among an elite group of Platinum level chapters, and defined as winners who have achieved GOLD status for 10 or more consecutive years. Out of 159 chapters, San Jose is one of only three chapters achieving Gold status since the program was started in 1986.

Join us for this very special 50th Anniversary Celebration to honor past and present chapter members of the San Jose Institute of Internal Auditors
