The IIA Tucson Chapter Presents:

A Passion for Auditing

PRESENTED BY:

Stephen Schiltz, CPA

Wednesday, May 18, 2016 3:00 – 5:00 p.m.
2 CPEs and Our Chapter Year-End “Platinum” Celebration

May is International Internal Audit Awareness Month

A Passion for Auditing CPE Outline:

- Internal audit’s role in a financial statement audit;
- Increasing value through internal and external auditor coordination;
- Lessons learned and best practices; and
- Insights from the audit professional.

REGISTRATION

Register by Monday May 16, 2016 at the Tucson Chapter Website – Events tab:
http://www.theiia.org/chapters/tucson

Members $25 – Non-Members $35  A Great Value!
Cost Includes: Registration and Celebration Appetizers following the Event

Door Prize: Win a $100 gift certificate!

AGENDA

2:30 pm Registration – Teaming Room
3:00 to 5:00 pm CPE Event
5:00 to 6:00 pm Platinum Celebration with Appetizers in the Courtyard

LOCATION

Pima Federal Credit Union, Evans Building, Teaming Room, 6850 N. Oracle Road, Tucson, AZ 85704
Pima Federal Financial Plaza Courtyard for the Social and End of Year Celebration
Steve Schiltz is an assurance senior manager with CliftonLarsonAllen’s (CLA) Tucson office. He began his career with CLA in 2002 and has extensive experience providing assurance services to credit unions and credit union service organizations. Steve has made presentations to credit union management teams, supervisory committees, and boards of directors, as well as national speaking engagements and webinars.

A licensed CPA in Arizona and Texas, Steve is a member of the AICPA, Arizona Society of CPA’s and the Beta Gamma Sigma Honor Society. He received his bachelor’s in accounting, cum laude, from the University of Arizona in Tucson.

Join us for a late afternoon informative CPE Event

And Platinum Celebration Social After!