Overview:

We have had a great chapter year with many accomplishments and again achieving Platinum status as a chapter. This is the IIA’s 75th Anniversary and we need to CELEBRATE! Join me and your fellow chapter members in a presentation on Creating Your Own Perfect World by Pat Hirst. Each attendee will receive Pat’s book, In a Perfect World: Interpersonal Skills for Life. One Amazon Customer review states:

“An excellent book that gives you all the “need to knows” to improve your interpersonal skills and to communicate in challenging situations too!”

Pat believes that the richness of our lives depends on the quality of our personal and professional relationships and that depends on how we communicate. For over 20 years, she has offered leaders and employees strategies to improve their communication skills, results and workplace cultures. Pat’s presentation will be interactive and informative so mark your calendar and be sure not to miss this event!
